

Seminar on Bacterial Fruit Blotch (BFB) of Cucurbits
University of Georgia
Tifton, GA
June 3rd, 2004

Hosted by Drs. Ron Gitaitis, David Langston and Ron Walcott

Date: June 3rd, 2004
Location: Coastal Plains Experimental Station, University of Georgia, Tifton.

Seminar will include instruction, diagnosis using commercially available kits, prevention and control of the BFB disease on different cucurbits as well as complaint handling and legal issues facing commercial watermelon producers, greenhouse growers and the seed industry.

Fees: US$100.00
It will cover includes test kits, folder with educational materials, lunch and refreshments.

Make a check payable to California Crop Improvement Association.
Please indicate on check (memo) that is for the BFB seminar.

Send it to: California Crop Improvement Association
Parson Seed Certification Center
University of California
One Shield Avenue
Davis, CA 95616

Accommodations: Holiday Inn in Tifton, GA
Phone number: 1-229-382-6687
Location: Intersection of I75 & US82, US 312
Deadline for reservations: May 19th.

Fifty rooms reserved: thirty rooms for two nights and twenty for one night at a rate of US $62.00 per night + 12% taxes.
Arrival date: June 2nd.
Breakfast is not included.
When making reservation, mention you are with the 'Watermelon group' for the reduced rate.

Airports Tifton, GA
 Atlanta, GA (183 miles; 3 hours from Tifton)
 Jacksonville, FL (166 miles; 2 hours, 46 minutes from Tifton)
 Panama City, FL (207 miles; 3 hours, 58 minutes from Tifton)
 Tallahassee, FL (92 miles; 2 hours from Tifton)

Directions Please let us know if you need additional directions (maps) on how to get the research station or hotel/motel from the airport. We will fax you this information.

Contacts Ms. Jana Middleton (ASTA) J.Middleton@harrismoran.com
 Phone: 209-549-5215

 Pablo Guzman (CCIA) pguzman@ucdavis.edu
 Phone: 530-754-9649